

Law Suit to Begin On More Power Lines

Plans for a new tower line, to be extended through portions of Orinda's residential district near the Country Club, have encountered opposition from irate residents.

Condemnation proceedings by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company for right of way through Lind-O-Rinda Estates will be brought before the Superior Court in Martinez on Tuesday for trial.

A spokesman for people in that area said, "We don't understand why new towers should be put through residential districts."

AS PROPOSED by P.G.&E., the line will extend through the Orinda Estates and golf course area.

According to a representative of the Land Department, P.G.&E. proceedings Tuesday will concern extension of the right of way. At present, the right of way is 100 feet for the 110,000 volt line now in effect. The property was bought 30 years ago.

Now P.G.&E. wants to add a 220,000 volt line to run parallel with the existing one, and needs a 37-foot additional widening of the right of way.

AN APPRAISAL of the land was made and then an offer by the company. However, land owners were unable to agree on the price, according to the company.

Both parties will have to agree with the price rule by the court.

"I don't know when we'll build," the P.G.&E. spokesman said. "It may take years to clear up this right of way business."

Long Won't - Will - Run?

Sheriff Long Out Of Congress Race, St. Hill Reports

Sheriff James N. Long has withdrawn as a candidate for Congress, Thomas N. St. Hill reported last night to a meeting of several hundred Republicans at Acalanes High School.

Purpose of the meeting, St. Hill told the gathering, was "to nominate a candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket, worthy of the principles for which we stand."

St. Hill said the specific reason for the meeting was that "we were not satisfied with the candidate who was proposed." He added: "I understand that that candidate has withdrawn as of tonight."

St. Hill's reference was unmistakably to Long, whose candidacy, although Long had never officially announced it, had been a foregone conclusion with the County Central Committee.

Behind-the-scenes meetings the past few weeks resulted in a county-wide telephone campaign announcing last night's meeting at Acalanes. The preparatory sessions included a luncheon Tuesday by aroused citizens.

Object of the meeting had been to find a candidate to oppose Long.

Orinda Association, Chamber Seek To Learn Plans of State for Crossroads

Orinda Association directors took action Monday night to learn exactly what the state plans are for the Crossroads, in connection with possible start of freeway construction in 1953.

Between now and the next board meeting March 24, L. A. Weymouth, engineer for District IV of the State Division of Highways, will be approached with the question:

Director Tells Lions of Boys Club Activities

Gilbert Eaton, a director of Oakland Boys Club, outlined the history of the boys club and described its function at the Lions Club meeting at the Willows Wednesday night.

He told of how the organization worked in the youth delinquency areas and its results in reducing the frequency of delinquency.

The youth organization stresses all activities to suit the interests of every boy, such as crafts, athletics, library, television and stamp clubs.

Rudy Rassmussen, Orinda Lion, is also a director of the Oakland Boys Club.

March plans of the Lions are for a speaking contest which will be held sometime during the coming month. Students from Acalanes will participate, and the winner will go on to the zone speakers' contest in April.

Last meeting in March of the club will be a joint meeting of Orinda and Danville Lions. The district governor will be present.

Miller Store Opens On Brookwood Today

Grand opening of the new Miller's Store for Men at 229 Brookwood Road is being held today. Over $500 worth of men's furnishings will be awarded.

The Orinda store carries a complete line of clothes and accessories for men.

Girl Scout Troop 106 Visits City Candy Kitchen

Girl Scout Troop 106 from Glorieta School visited the candy kitchen of MacFarlane's Candies in Oakland February 12.

The 14 scouts were escorted by their leader, Mrs. Margaret Evans, and co-leaders, Mrs. Charles Erickson and Mrs. Ken Hauer.

The group observed with interest the manner in which candies were made. Afterward, samples, distributed to the entire group, provided a fitting and sweet climax.

Rotarians Hear Furniture Buyer

A. E. Medley, buyer and manager of Breuners Furniture in Berkeley, spoke on "Service Is My Business" at the Rotary Club luncheon meeting Wednesday at the Willows.

A former Captain in the Marine Corps, Medley was born and educated in England. His hobby is Shakespeare's works.

L. D. MacGregor was chairman.

Reports Conflict After Political Meet Last Night

Whether or not Sheriff James Long will run for Congress is still a big question this morning.

According to various "authoritative sources," he will—and he won't.

Last night Tom St. Hill reported to a Republican meeting that "it is my understanding that the candidate (Long) has withdrawn."

St. Hill based this on facts presented by Frank Hollander, Pittsburg member of the County Republican Central Committee.

Hollander told the Sun that his source was Clarence Erickson, Richmond. Erickson is chairman of the Republican County Central group's subcommittee named to select a candidate for Congress. Hollander is also a member of this subcommittee.

HOLLANDER SAID the subcommittee met Wednesday noon at the Orinda Country Club to discuss selection of a congressional candidate. He emphasized that Erickson said that "Long would withdraw from the race and probably would run for Assembly from the Richmond district."

Hollander told the Sun that Erickson would corroborate his statements.

HOWEVER, ERICKSON late last night said:

"That to the best of his knowledge Long has not made up his mind."

That Long had said that if he didn't get unified support from the Republican Party, he would refuse to run.

"That if Long did not run, it would be up to the Central Contra Costa committee which met last night to 'provide the Republican Party with a winning candidate.'"

That the subcommittee was divided; some favored Long "because he could win," others opposed him. O. J. Wohlgenuth was mentioned as a possibility.

THAT PRIME OPPOSITION to Long comes from this area.

That Long originally intended to run for Assembly from Richmond, and only considered the congressional race because he could help the party.

That T. H. DeLap was at the meeting Wednesday.

(The Sun last night was unable to reach Sheriff Long.)

Last night DeLap, G.O.P. power in the county, said he haven't heard anything about it. I haven't talked to him for two weeks."

G. O. P. Assembly Race Is Still Big Question Mark

By POLITICUS

The pot continued to boil this week in the Republican candidate's race for assemblyman.

1. Ed Larmer, Walnut Creek, said he is not out of the race, but he has not said up his mind about running.

2. Larmer, King Parker and O. J. Wohlgenuth have expressed dissatisfaction with the way the Republican Assembly has handled the selection of a candidate to back.

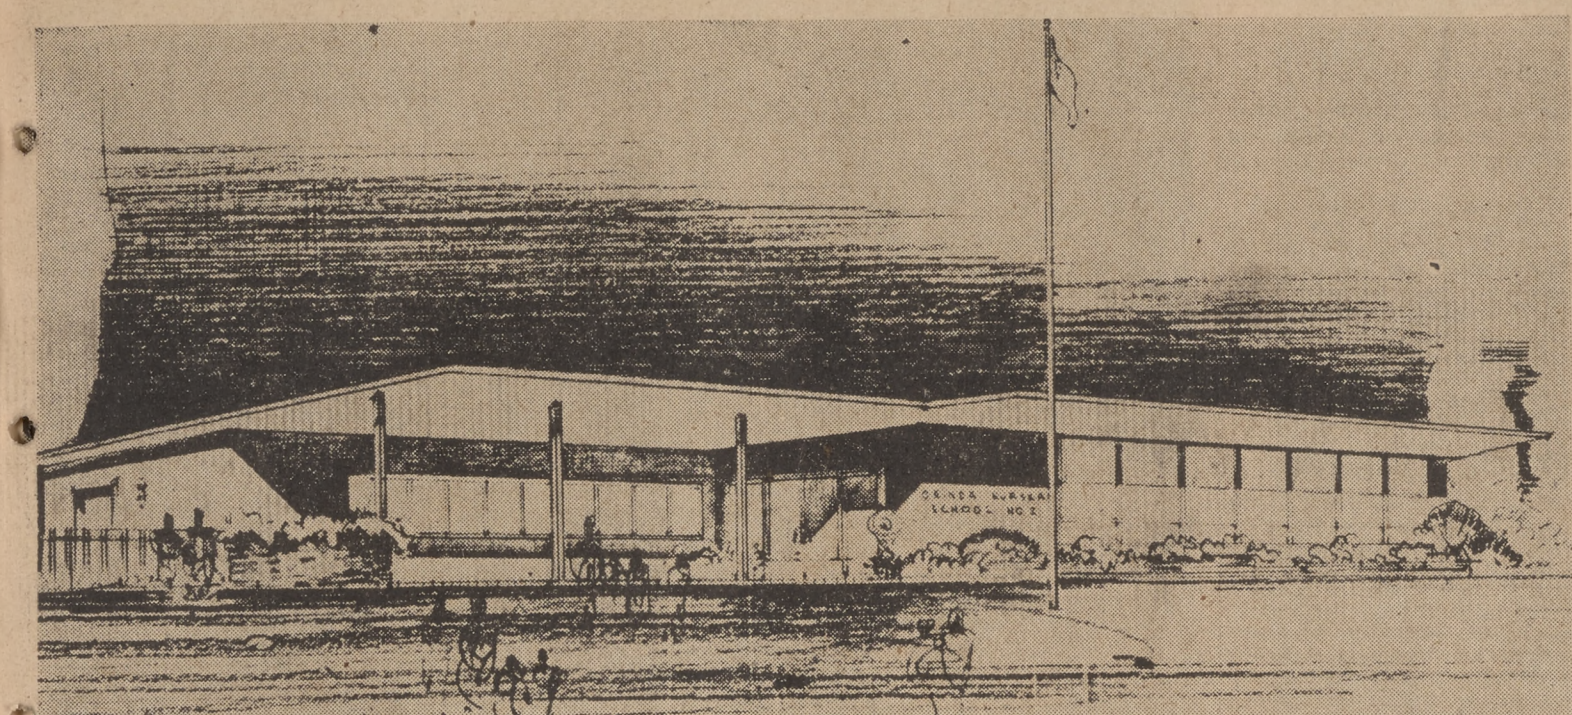

REPUBLICAN ASSEMBLY leaders, meanwhile, say the committee has not yet made a decision. President George Neill said they are still considering three men — Parker, Don Doyle and Wohlgenuth. (Larmer did not appear at the public meeting where the candidates presented their qualifications.)

But Politics is still sticking to his prediction of last week that Doyle will be named by the Assembly. Politics learned that Doyle was the winner of the straw vote taken at the public meeting of the Assembly.

There still is no strong Democrat in the contest. But some Republicans were worried that if a strong Democrat does toss in his hat, he might cause a lot of trouble in the GOP race.

THEY REASON THAT a well-known Democrat, filling on the Republican ticket, might capture the GOP nomination if the vote were split hopelessly among several Republican candidates.

One Democrat mentioned for the job — Jack Fries, Martinez mayor — apparently is out of the race. He filed for reelection to the city council.

ORINDA NURSERY SCHOOL NO. 2, to take care of children on the Moraga side of Orinda and also those from Lafayette, is now a definite project of the Orinda Nursery School Association. The new school will form one administrative unit with the Orinda Nursery School already in existence, which conducts classes at Orinda Community Church.

One president and one board, with representation from all sections, will serve both schools. A committee of businessmen is helping the association in acquisition of a site on the Moraga side for the new school. This proposed exterior plan of Nursery School No. 2 was drawn for the association by Architect Jack Buchter.

19 Per Cent Fire Insurance Rate Cut! Drop from Class 6 to 4 Is Authorized

Unexpected jumping of a classification from Class 6 to Class 4, gives Orinda Fire Protection District a 19 per cent reduction in residential fire insurance rates, effective as of February 15.

Notification of this cut was received February 21 from the Pacific Fire Rating Bureau by the Orinda Board of Fire Commissioners. The notice, marked to the attention of Fire Chief H. E. Wyatt, arrived at the main fire house.

"This certainly was a most agreeable surprise," Commissioner Gilbert Earle commented. "We had anticipated a drop to Class 5, with a consequent insurance rate cut of nine per cent. The additional 10 per cent reduction was not expected until completion and equipping of a third fire station in Sleepy Hollow."

ANYONE IN the area who has residential fire insurance policies effective from December 15, 1951, or later, can request a rate adjustment by contacting their agent or broker.

Earle explained that even though the authorization is effective as of February 15, reductions are retroactive for policies effective from December 15.

The Rating Bureau is to inform the local fire board of an adjustment in rates for business property, Earle said.

BACK OF THE SURPRISE slash of 19 per cent, according to Earle, was a reserve which showed that, but also went beyond those recommendations. Much of the credit for the vast improvement, and the resultant rate reduction, should go to the chief.

THE COMMISSIONER added that the new development means, in effect, that the $130,000 bond issue approved by the voters in November, 1950, is "beginning to pay off."

"It's entirely possible," Earle said, "that when the Sleepy Hollow station is completed, we may apply for a Class 3 rating."

Rev. Thomas in St. Stephen's Pulpit Sunday

Many friends of the Rev. J. Henry Thomas will be happy to welcome him to the pulpit of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Sunday, 5 p.m., at Orinda Community Church. All grades of the Church School will meet at the same time.

The Rev. Thomas, who is rector of St. Clement's Church in Berkeley, will be in charge of services for the remainder of the week.

Absurdia Talent Night Tuesday Promises Fun Galore for Orinda

Fun, entertainment and an opportunity to participate with new and old friends in Absurdia in Suburbia III are all in store for Orindans who attend the Talent Night Tuesday at 8 o'clock at Orinda School auditorium.

Jean Downs, chairman of Absurdia for Orinda Mothers Club, urges everyone, man or woman, mother or father, to attend Talent Night for laughs and to help a community project.

Chairman of the evening, Coleman Huntley, has arranged a short series of skits from past performances of Absurdia in Suburbia to get everyone in the mood for further high-jinks.

SONGS BY THE Bagettes, mothers' trio, a monologue by Fred Hall and a skit by James Read and company will entertain all before it is their turn to show how they can entertain.

Huntley will then direct the talent show from the audience. Anyone with a skit or song or music is welcome to present it at Talent Night for possible use in Absurdia in Suburbia in May.

Other especially sought-for talent for the show includes male singers, male and female dancers, clowns and almost any person not Improvement To Start July 1 on San Pablo Dam Rd.

Improvement estimated to cost $358,000 will start about July 1 on the San Pablo Dam Road, it was stated last Friday by County Surveyor Joseph W. Barkley, following an announcement that the State Highway Commission had approved the project.

The commission authorized the state highway engineer to construct 4.7 miles of the federal aid secondary road.

Barkley said that a considerable portion of the San Pablo Dam Road, officially designated as County Route No. 794, will be relocated and that many corners will be taken out to straighten the route.

Barkley said the $358,000 project has been budgeted this year by the Contra Costa Board of Supervisors to finance the work.

Contra Costa County will pay 46 per cent of the cost on the basis of a partial matching plan. The federal government will pay the remaining expense, with the State Highway Department to furnish crews for the soil surface survey.

The 4.7 miles to be improved start 2.2 miles northwest of Orinda and end 4.5 miles southeast of San Pablo.

The Dam Road was placed first on the list in the report turned over to the Board of Supervisors by the highway committee of the Contra Costa Development Association at conclusion of a two-year study of road needs. On the list were 16 highways with needs of improvement in the county.

Heart Fund Needs Many Donations

Contra Costa's drive for $15,000 to fight heart diseases is falling short of the mark, Dr. Harold Robinson, president of the Contra Costa Heart Association, warned this week. The drive, which started February 1, ends today.

"Although we are receiving a few return envelopes every day at area headquarters in each of the county's sections, it does not look as if the 1952 Heart Fund will reach its goal unless last minute contributors remember to send in their dollar bills and checks," he said.

Auto Crash at Camino Sobrante

A broadside-right angle collision between cars driven by Andrew Blalock, 49, of 24 El Verano, Orinda, and Anton Robert Eberle, 44, of 985 Victoria Court, Lafayette, occurred here Monday afternoon according to the California Highway Patrol.

The accident was reported as happening at Camino Pablo and Camino Sobrante, at 2:15 p.m. No one was injured. Blalock was northbound and Eberle was southbound.

The board is seeking a Moraga Del Rey site from the Moraga Company for a fourth grammar school. Speculation has arisen as to the possible effect of the attorney general's ruling in view of this.

Also, Trustee Jack Fraser is a member of the Malott and Peterson Roofing Company, which has done school work in San Francisco.

Under a strict adherence to Brown's opinion, it has been pointed out, this might disqualify Fraser, even though his firm has not done work for the Orinda School District.

"IT'S CONCEIVABLE," Stewart observed, "that the attorney general's opinion might be interpreted as asking any attorney who is a member of a school board if he has clients doing work for any school district."

Hemmings and Sheaff both pointed out that there is no question of integrity involved—that the issue boils down to clarification and interpretation of the attorney general's opinion.

Mothers Club also needs persons to help ticket chairman Mrs. David Wallace and Mrs. Greg Engelhard. Also the business manager, Mrs. Jeff Schwarck, could use some assistants. A number of persons who like to sew or know costumeing are necessary. And there will be scenery to make, lights to string, property men.

At the end of the evening, refreshments will be served under direction of Mrs. Mel Nickerson, who promises lots of home-made baked goods and coffee as a final pepper-upper and kickoff for Absurdia in Suburbia III.

Come one, come all, and join the fun on Talent Night.

'Spade Parade' Needs Your Aid Orinda Arbor Day

Have you planned your trees for Orinda's "Arbor Day" yet? Join the "Spade Parade" Sunday, March 9. In beautifying our community, trees play such an important part and such a lasting one.

If for any reason you are unable to plant your trees, the Boy Scouts, in the spirit of community service, are available to do the job for you.

Get together with your neighbors and take advantage of your local nurseryman's quantity discount.

Back the slogan "More Trees for Orinda."

Ruling About School Trustees To Be Discussed

Although not on the prepared agenda, the general question of eligibility of trustees, under the state attorney general's recent opinion, will probably be discussed at Monday night's meeting of the Orinda School District board, according to Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff.

Sheaff pointed out that consideration of the ruling exists regarding interpretation of this ruling, which holds that no school board members can do business with schools anywhere in the state. The opinion is based on an 1872 law.

Deputy District Attorney Charles Hemmings stated that his office is not taking any action on the problem at present because of a rumor that Governor Warren has agreed to place the matter before a special session of the State Legislature for clarification.

ACCORDING TO Hemmings, school boards throughout the state are uncertain as to the exact meaning of the ruling.

At a meeting of the Alameda County Trustees Association last week at San Lorenzo High School, Alameda County District Attorney Frank Coakley took issue with Attorney General Edmund Brown's ruling, stating there should be clarification by the courts or the Legislature.

"I do not believe you should get panicky because of the attorney general's opinion," he said. "Nor do I believe that school trustees should start resigning en masse."

HEMMINGS DESCRIBED the situation on the Orinda board as typical of many others. On the Orinda board, President Edgar Stewart is a member of the law firm of Bred, Robinson and Stewart, which has done work from time to time for the Moraga Company, although it is not the regular legal representative for the firm.

Slowly, Surely, Spring's on Way

Maybe spring's in the air. Could be, according to the week's weather (February 21 through 27).

Warmest day was on Tuesday with the temperature gauge registering 63 degrees. The two coldest nights were February 21 and last Sunday night, just above freezing, 32 degrees.

Rainfall for the week was only .14 of an inch, bringing the total for the weather year (since July 1) up to 36.79 inches.

Protests Bring Denial of Request For Golf Fairway

Concerted community protest resulted Tuesday night in recommendation by the County Planning Commission that Al Espinosa be denied a permit for "a golf practice fairway with office and related facilities" on a 15-acre site in the Villa Park section.

Planning Technician Tom Heaton reported that the recommendation for denial resulted from the tremendous protest. "Just about everybody came in from that part of Orinda," he said. Then he modified his statement, estimating that about 40 objectors were present.

IN ADDITION, eight protest petitions were presented, bearing scores of signatures.

Attorney John Nejedly, representing Espinosa, asked if it would do any good to discuss the matter with the objectors but, according to Heaton, the protest was so strong that the commission decided to recommend denial.

Espinosa's application described the site sought on "Lots 16, 17, and 18, Villa Park, Orinda (R-A)." The proposed site was on the east side of Orinda Highway, about 720 feet north of Manzanita Drive.

ON MONDAY NIGHT, the Orinda Association board, meeting at Orinda School, had gone on record as opposed to the Espinosa application, after hearing representatives of the area affected.

President Stanley Allen was instructed to inform Planning Commissioner John Stoffel of the board's stand.

Appearing before the Orinda Association board were Roy Beckett, president of Orinda Estates Association, and Mrs. Edith Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Larabee of the Orinda Court Improvement Association.

Mrs. Palmer, wife of President Clarence A. Palmer of the Orinda Court Improvement Association, said her husband and Emma H. Usinger, secretary, to the board of supervisors. She also read one to the supervisors from Louis D. Barr.

Sleepy Hollow Election Monday At Annual Meet

All Sleepy Hollowans are urged to attend the annual general meeting of the Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association and election to be held Monday, 8 p.m., at Orinda School auditorium.

Election of officers will take place. The sewer and road question will be discussed, along with other current problems.

Each director will give a resume of his activities for the past year.

Plane Spotters' Group Is Organized With Headquarters at Moraga School

After a long winter's hibernation, civilian defense in the area is beginning to stir.

The airplane spotters' group sponsored by the U. S. Air Force has been organized for the Orinda, Moraga, Lafayette, Canyon areas under the leadership of Commander M. Blane De Leshe, U. S. Navy, retired.

Moraga, being the central location of the whole area, has been chosen by the Air Force as location of the spotters' station. Trustees of the Moraga School have offered the facilities of the school building for the headquarters of the group.

A telephone is to be installed by the county for use in reporting planes to the filter center in Oakland.

COMMANDER DE LESHE was in Pearl Harbor at the time of Pearl Harbor, and recognizes the importance of advance warning given by the volunteer plane spotters. During the war he served as commanding officer of the U.S.S. Regal, a supply ship taking supplies from New Zealand to New Caledonia through the famous Coral Sea.

He also saw plenty of action while attached to the Amphibious Marines, and participated with the invasion fleet at Subic Bay and Lingian Gulf.

Since his retirement in 1946, he has made his home in Orinda and has been active in many civic groups, including the Orinda Rotary Club and the Orinda Masonic lodge.

VOLUNTEERS FOR this group

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

WE HEARD AN INTERESTING STORY the other day which gives us pause for thought. Dr. and Mrs. C. Walter Cole, who live on Southwood Drive, got word that their son Rodney, who is taking his Navy Training in San Diego, was ill with pneumonia.

The worried parents naturally wanted more information that that so, having had experience previously with the Red Cross, which had done so well by their older son on Attu, they contacted the Red Cross headquarters in Richmond.

Immediately a wire was sent to a Red Cross worker in San Diego who went to the hospital, obtained all the necessary information, including the fact that he was getting along very nicely and was having the best of care, and wired the data to the Richmond Red Cross, which in turn contacted the Coles, so that the following day they knew the situation exactly.

Under the circumstances that would not have been possible except for the Red Cross. "Yes," said Mrs. Cole, "When Hilda Everts asked me to solicit for the Red Cross drive I said yes in a hurry."

And, as you undoubtedly read in last week's Sun, the Red Cross drive will be starting tomorrow. One year when we were soliciting, contributing our car, our gas, our time and our patience, as all solicitors do, we became outraged as we continuously beat on one particular door to no avail — the lady simply wasn't home. To us, she was obviously no lady, because any decent citizen should be home doing her housework at least one morning that week.

Then on the fifth day as we approached to storm the citadel we were slightly abashed to find a white envelope stuck under the door knocker addressed to "The Red Cross Solicitor." In same was a check and an apology for never being at home because, guess what, she was out on the road soliciting for the Red Cross!

Then the facts of life slowly began to dawn on us — undoubtedly some poor creature was likewise stamping around in anguished frustration on our front stoop. So we copied "the lady" because, of course, she had definitely reestablished her position in the "lady" category and sure enough, when we returned home, in our little envelope was the receipt and a note which read, "Thank you very much, this gives me an idea."

Does it give you any ideas? After all, consider the volunteer worker who goes around from door to door; she also has children to cook for, garden to dig, snails to smother and houses to clean, so ask her any questions if you want to find out where your money goes — with the possible exception of that one about, "I have contributed to the Community Chest and doesn't that cover the Red Cross?" — Nope, it doesn't, and anyway there is no Community Chest drive out here.

Why we have gone off on such a tirade we can't rightly say, because the Orinda contributor is always both generous and considerate — that is one of the many reasons we are so lucky to live in such an area — just enthusiasm for the Red Cross, no doubt, so please forgive us.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK FEE entertained on Washington's Birthday for Dr. and Mrs. Carl Jensen, visiting here from Seattle.

The Dr. Carl Jensens are cousins of our old friends the Dr. Stephen Jensens of Charles Hill Road, who are constantly being visited by some fascinating Jensens — all from different facets of the family.

The Jensens also entertained for the Jensens with a charming brunch which everyone enjoyed — even the Jensens.

BE FINE OR YOU WILL BE FINED — or, it is our understanding, that you get fined even if you are fine — anyway, there was a great deal of fining going on the other night at the Scout Hut during the Rotary Club meeting presided over by Joseph Sheaff.

As you probably know, the Rotary Club sponsors Boy Scout Troop 200 so, for that particular evening, Troop 200 put on a Bean Feed for the edification and nutrition of their sponsor.

Our informant tells us that the scouts scurried around like veritable beavers arranging tables, preparing salads and cooking beans.

ONE OF THE RAINIEST AND COLDEST nights last week the Orinda Union School turned on the heat — ostensibly for the purpose of warming up the place — for the sundry souls who came to the "Meet the Press Night" sponsored by the Mothers Club.

Master of Ceremonies Kendrick Morrish delighted everyone with a list of recommendations for daily chores to keep the housewife busy, written by the late W. C. Fields. After going on and on with the most exhausting suggestions, it finally became fairly evident that the late W. C. Fields had never been a housewife.

Joe Ternes from the Oakland Tribune hilariously rehearsed some of the typical trials put to the average newsboy by the average housewife. Les Sipos, also of the Tribune, gave some excellent examples of how he had to be several places at once doing several different things, also of interest to the housewife, who could have told him how to do it.

Casey Ward of the Berkeley Gazette gave some fascinating data on news columnists — all of which came as a distinct shock to us because it appears that that is not what we are, after all.

And then came the Boss (your editor, Herman Silverman) with pertinent and forceful observations about the part the Orinda resident should play in "doing something about" the bad roads, the crowded schools, the congestion at the Crossroads, and he ended his talk with a pointed question, "How many of you are registered voters?"

Well — are you?

HANDLE-BAR MUSTACHIOS, garters holding up their shirt sleeves, derby hats and big black cigars. Such will be the gear of the husbands of the members of the Orinda Branch of the Children's Hospital who will man the booth for Mardi Gras night at the Claremont Hotel next Thursday evening.

The ladies — ah yes, the Ladies — Southern Belles, no less, with black domino masks and beauty spots so you just won't recognize your friends whom you ordinarily see in the various markets of Orinda in blue jeans and an old wind-breaker.

You know, it is the Annual Easter Fair with fascinating possibilities for every one, young ones, old ones, of just any old sex. Get your tickets from Mrs. Carl Dailey, Orinda 2729.

AND NOW FOR THE SURPRISE PACKAGE. Of course it is just plain mean to tell you about it, because if you haven't your ticket already you can't go — it's a sellout.

But the Orinda Branch Fashion Luncheon being, as it is, on April Fool's Day, has a surprise package definitely — and we are only going to tantalize you by saying that the Country Club food is always good — no fooling — the clothes by Joseph Magnin's Walnut Creek store are perfectly lovely — no April Fool for that.

The branch members will all be there working like beavers — that's on the level, too. The decorations will be a gardenia or camellia corsage for every lady — no fooling about that, either.

But what is going to be on the center of each table? — ha, ha, ha!

RUSHING NEWS FROM SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE. Ann Summers pledged Delta Gamma, and Peggy Connell pledged Gamma Phi Beta.

THE HOLY NAME AUXILIARY of St. Isadore Church of Danville will have a Benefit Fashion Luncheon today at 12:30 p.m. The ensembles to be shown by professional models are from the Joseph Magnin shop in Walnut Creek. The affair will be held at Faust's new restaurant across from Magnin's, and Mrs. Bruce Anderson will commentate. Mrs. Frank Byington of Alamo says that tickets will be $2.20 and may be purchased from any lady of the church or at Joseph Magnin's.

Mrs. Robert Hervey and Mrs. Ridgeway will model also. Reservations have come in for Mesdames C. L. Best, Frank J. Byington, George Irvine, Robert Kerley, George Towle, Robert Lambert and Frank Perry and from San Francisco Mesdames Robert Byington, James English and Leo Boyle.

Officers of the Holy Name Auxiliary are: President, Mrs. Joseph Lumpkin; vice-president, Mrs. Roger Schulte; treasurer, Mrs. Robert Kerley; secretary, Mrs. Vincent Sneeringer.

Last week the Dolores Branch of the Providence Hospital Junior Guild welcomed the following new members at a luncheon at the Orinda Country Club:

Mesdames A. V. Scollard, John A. Libbey, William J. O'Reilly, Fred H. Cooper, Zachary Montgomery, John Hennessy, James McDermott, Leo Ortland, Maynard Kimmey, James Stewart, Timothy F. Haw, Robert W. Farwell and Ernest L. Thiry.

The Guild maintains and staffs the Well Baby Clinic at Providence Hospital.

HAVE YOU READ ANY GOOD BOOKS LATELY? If, like the rest of us, you just haven't had the time and would like a little pre-digested erudition, why not sit quietly and rest your face and hands while listening to Mrs. Alex B. Davis review Agnes DeMille's much discussed best seller, "Dance to the Pipe?"

The Pandora Chapter of the Children's Home Society is making this possible for you on March 13 at the Community Church tea, too — so if you want a nice, relaxing afternoon that you can enjoy and at which you can be educated all at the same time, call Mrs. M. Ray at Orinda 8414.

Santa Maria Plans 'Orinda Roundup'

All the color and gaiety characteristic of California's pioneer celebrations will be recreated in this area June 7 and 8 during presentation of "Orinda Roundup" by parishioners and friends of Santa Maria Church.

The picturesque Saint Mary's College campus has been chosen as site for the outdoor event, which will feature entertainment of appeal to both children and adults.

Climax will be a barbecue patterned after those enjoyed by the early Californians following annual spring roundups.

Directing planning of "Orinda Roundup" is Rudy Rasmussen, assisted by Mrs. Robert Boyle and George Klement. Committee heads include:

Mrs. A. V. Scollard, personnel; Joseph Sheaff, entertainment; Charles Malone, grounds and equipment; John Stoffel and George Courtney, finance; Mrs. Dean Libby and William Straus, booths; Zach Montgomery, decorations, and Robert Boyle, Lonnie Bee, Joseph Terne and Mrs. Duane Neuschwander, public relations.

Harry Daum is in charge of the prizes.

Leap Year Query: Are You Yokum or Daisy Mae Type?

It's Leap Year, and the Clipper Club will have its February meeting, "Dogpatch" style, in Fellowship Hall of Orinda Community Church tonight.

Navigators Al and Lillian Styles will direct the Sadie Hawkins Day races and games.

Chefs for this Dogpatch party are Ruth and Bill Mott, Jean and Ken Hutter and Lu and Bill Branch.

Josephine Booth Films at Museum Night of Feb. 29

This evening at 8:15 there will be a program of films by Josephine Booth of Orinda at the San Francisco Museum of Art. Six films will be included and, as a group, they will present a survey of the creative possibilities the medium offers the independent artist. Among the films will be two Albert Bender Award projects, a recent filming of Death Valley and a dance satire featuring Iris Mabry.

Miss Booth in private life is Mrs. William E. Elliott of El Rincon Lane.

Psychologist to Address Meeting

Are children and household chores getting you down? Or is it the weather that sends you into a slump? Whatever your moods may be, a prominent consulting psychologist will discuss—and explain them at 8 p.m. Tuesday at St. Mary's College during the regular monthly meeting of the Orinda Catholic Women's Club.

Dr. Edgar J. Hinkel, Ph. D., has accepted the group's invitation to express his views on "Psychological Problems Relating to Children and Marriage" at a meeting to which all women of the area are invited, according to Mrs. Charles Malone, program chairman.

A graduate of St. Mary's College, Dr. Hinkel received his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of California and now engages in private practice in Oakland.

Bridge Sections Schedule Games

Bridge sections of the Orinda Mothers Club will meet on the following scheduled, according to Ruth Gilwee, temporary chairman:

The Thursday morning group will meet next Thursday at the home of Hilda Shrader, 92 Orchard Road, at 9:30 a.m.

The morning players on Friday, March 7, will play bridge at the home of Dorothy Bargones, 208 Camino Sobrante.

The Friday afternoon bridge section is scheduled to meet at the home of Norma Maul, 14 Irvine Drive, at 12:30 p.m. on March 7.

Guild Meetings Set for Tuesday

Sections 1 and 2 of the Women's Guild will meet, separately, at 11 a.m. Tuesday at Orinda Community Church.

Starting with luncheon at 12:30 p.m., the General Guild will meet at the church. Following luncheon there will be a program featuring a talk by Mrs. A. C. Ramsey on her experiences in the South Sea Islands.

Group of 35 Has Enjoyable Outing Of Weekend Skiing

A jolly ski party of 35 left Orinda last Friday morning in several cars for Phillip's in its snowy setting between Strawberry and Echo Summit. They all, from Daddy and Mummy to the littlest one, enjoyed the skiing or just slipping and sliding and the evening fun in the lodge.

The outing was an all-family affair enjoyed by the Kenneth Court-rights, C. B. Chantlers, W. C. Branches, Joseph Sheaffs and Ralph Halls, and Joe and John Conley, Rick Johnson and Leslie Heche. Sunday was a particularly beautiful day and all were loath to leave the mountains for their return to Orinda that afternoon.

Frank Hights Enjoy Motor Trip to South

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hight enjoyed a 10-day motor trip south, returning February 19. While Orinda was enduring rains and cold weather, they found sunshine, though evenings were cold.

They drove leisurely to and about Los Angeles, San Diego, La Jolla, Coronado, Chula Vista, Palm Springs and finally Carmel. They left Orinda in the rain and returned to it in the rain.

School Board Explains How Bids Are Let

(Editor's note: This is a statement prepared by the Orinda School Board on how bids for school building construction are called for and dealing with estimated costs of construction.)

THE ORINDA UNION School District has at present plans for the Sleepy Hollow School in the hands of the State Department of Architecture, being checked for approval. This is a regular procedure required of all school districts before construction can begin.

Certain laws governing the construction of school buildings are provided in the California School Code. These laws cover all phases of construction, and the Department of Architecture must check the plans that are made up by the architect for the district.

AFTER THE PLANS are approved and returned from the Department of Architecture, the school district may advertise for bids to construct the proposed building.

The district is obligated by the laws of California to advertise in a local newspaper for two consecutive weeks. This advertising means that the school board is inviting any or all contractors to submit a bid for the construction of the building under consideration.

Sealed bids are received and opened at a special meeting of the board which has been previously set. The trustees are bound by law to accept the lowest bid submitted. However, if, in the opinion of the trustees, even the lowest bid is too high, all the bids may be rejected and the board may re-advertise for bids.

CONTRARY TO THE understanding of many citizens, the architect has nothing to do with the bids made by the contractors.

Since the bids must be submitted in a sealed form to the trustees of a district, no one knows what price is bid until the bids are opened. Sometimes the bids submitted by the contractors on the same building will vary from five to twenty thousand dollars, depending on the size of the project.

ON THE OTHER hand, the architect does make an estimate on what he thinks the building will cost. It is important to realize that this figure is only an estimate and is often above or below the actual contract price that comes from the bid of a contractor.

The architect bases his estimates on the current rates of construction. His estimates are also based on tabulated square foot costs as compiled by the State Department of Finance, which costs are averaged from completed school projects throughout the state.

Garden Club Will Meet on Thursday

The Orinda Garden Club will meet at Orinda Country Club Thursday morning at 10:30.

Mrs. Eugene Shurtleff, president, will ask all members to cooperate in giving blood to the Red Cross. Mrs. William Foster, membership chairman, announces that five new members have been added to the club roster. They are Mesdames Fred Mulvaney, Beach Dean, James H. Freeman, Fred Crawshaw and David Wallace.

John Paul Edwards will speak on "Roses and Azaleas." He will also answer questions and help the members solve some of their gardening problems which occur at this time of the year.

'How We Learn' - Delphian Subject

To discuss the ways in which the individual learns attitudes and habits and how he may "unlearn" them, the Chi Lambda Chapter of Delphian Society will meet Monday at Orinda Community Church.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Walter R. Barnett, members will introduce the subheads of the "How We Learn" seminar.

Lenten Series at Community Church

Six weeks of Lenten spiritual emphasis will open at Orinda Community Church Sunday when at 11 a.m. the congregation will participate in a service of Communion and reception of new members under the leadership of Rev. Fred R. Morrow.

In a brief meditation Rev. Morrow will introduce his Lenten theme, "The Bridge." Two sacred chorales, "O Sacred Head Now Wounded" by Hassler and "Jesu, Who in Sorrow Dying" by Bach will be sung by the choir under Margaret Popovich.

A complete worship and educational program for children, young people and adults will be available at 9:30. This earlier church service combines adults and youth for a half-hour and is followed by class groups.

A panel discussion will be presented for the adults, headed by Dr. F. B. Price, carrying on problems and suggestions growing out of recent presentations of Dr. Harvey B. Lyon Jr.

Guid Section 3 Names Committees

Section 3 of the Women's Guild met in Fellowship Hall of the Orinda Community Church February 12. Hostesses were Mrs. N. Reiger and Mrs. R. J. Magill.

Committees and chairmen were appointed as follows: Kitchen, Mrs. J. Hart; telephone and membership, Mrs. R. J. Magill, assisted by Mesdames J. Almond, C. Friberg; publicity, Mrs. T. W. Kersten; aprons, Mrs. R. H. Ussinger; stenciling, Mrs. S. S. Hunn.

Section 3's next meeting will be on the evening of March 11 at the homes of Mrs. Peter Veitch, 154 Camino Sobrante.

Orinda Library Will Participate In County's Library Week Program

Slogan for California Library Week, to be observed March 10-16, is "Something for everyone at your public library." Mrs. Josephine Dawson, in charge of Orinda Library, is cooperating with library staffs in the other 36 community branch and deposit station libraries in the Contra Costa County Library system, and with county library headquarters at the Hall of Records, Martinez, in planning Library Week activities.

TO BE PROCLAIMED by Governor Warren and other state and local officials, Library Week will stress public library service available to everybody in the community.

Orinda Library has a fluctuating book stock of some 2500 volumes, maintained by monthly deliveries from county library headquarters and by withdrawal of worn books and those that have outlived their interest.

BETWEEN DELIVERIES, specially requested books are also received by mail. Such requests may be supplied from the county library's holdings of approximately 132,000 volumes or by borrowing from the California State Library's collection of over 450,000 books, or through inter-library loan from some other library.

Orinda Branch Library, in the Orinda Community Church building, is open from 2 to 5 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday and also from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday.

YES, YOU CAN do something about taxes, government, local problems. Keep informed, participate, register and vote.

First Mission at Santa Maria Ending

Just as businessmen take annual accounting of their affairs, parishioners and friends of Santa Maria Catholic Church in Orinda last week completed their "spiritual inventory" under the direction of Father Felix Flynn of the Archdiocesan Missionaries, according to Father Thomas Stahill, pastor.

The first complete mission held at Santa Maria has attracted capacity crowds to services which included daily Mass at 6:30 and 8 a.m., nightly services at 8 and a closing ceremony highlighted by renewal of baptismal vows, profession of faith and deliverance of the Papal blessing.

Women of the parish participated in earlier mission activities, while men's services were concluded Sunday.

Save tires, gas, oil and tempers—shop at home.

Village Cleaner Couple Have Varied Background But Prefer Orinda Life

By IANN HASTINGS
Ernest and Lola Poll, owners of the Village Cleaners, find Orinda an especially friendly community through their business and social contacts.

Natives of Vienna, they are happy and very proud to be getting their final citizenship papers this summer. They came to this country in 1947, and established their present business at 101 Orinda Highway.

The couple made their home in Berkeley until 1950, when they bought the home where they now reside (with their cat) at 448 Camino Sobrante.

In Vienna, Ernest was in the dried fruit import and export business and Lola had her own dressmaking salon.

BEFORE COMING to the United States, they lived in Italy for two years, where they worked for the United Nations Rehabilitation and Relief Organization and the Allied Military Government. Lola worked as a Red Cross supervisor and Ernest was maintenance supervisor in the Camp Division.

After arriving in the Bay Area, Lola worked at her dressmaking profession at Maison Mendessolle in San Francisco for six months. Since then she has worked at their own establishment, doing dressmaking and designing her original creations.

Gown making is her hobby as well as her business. Leisure hours of gardening are another hobby.

ERNEST IS ACTIVE in community affairs — a member of Orinda Rotary, a director of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce and treasurer of Orinda Community Church.

With a continental background and the knowledge of five languages — German, Italian, Yugoslavian, French and, of course, English — the friendly couple are grateful to be residents of their community.

ORIOLE RUMMAGE SALE Next Week

Orinda Orioles have been busy this week preparing for the rummage sale to be held in Oakland at 285 12th Street Monday and Tuesday.

Chit and Chat about Don and Donna

By MARY THIES

AH - SCHOOL! This was the attitude of most students recently when they had to return to school after a four day holiday.

In evidence were quite a few sunburned faces and other trade marks of a weekend of skiing.

Seventy students from Acalanes clamored aboard a charter bus the previous Friday headed for Echo Summit and literally staggered off, four days later.

Despite the complaints of aches and pains it was a well known fact that a good time was had by all!

HELD ON THE SAME weekend was the Senior extra dance, but due to the popular winter sports there was a very small turnout. To mention a few of the couples seen there — John Bowron and Alice Spencer, Art Siler and Carol Van Cleave, Mike Elvidge and Marianne Somers, Al Culp and Margaret Rowe, Edward Ting and Peggy Everest, Mike Klement and Jackie Costa and Dave Cranston and Carol Grasse.

Also seen at the dance were the following couples who afterwards went to Bruce Morgan's for an indoor Bar-B-Q. Bruce and Avis Hutton, Jim Keefe and Carolyn Demeter, Mike McFarlane and Rae Johnson, and Bob Westlund and Barbara Carideo.

THE PIEDMONT Assemblies dance at the Claremont Country Club was very popular with Acalanes couples. Just to mention a few — Carol Earle and Alan Bottomely, and Joanne Willits with Richard Rogers.

Key boys — want to take a girl out cheap? Well, just get one of the girls in this list is of students who received 120 or more citizenship points in the last semester.

They received flashy orange cards admitting them free to all student activities for the remainder of the year.

The lucky one's are: Bill Bedard, Sharon Brown, Barbara Carideo, Carl Drews, Sally Fleeger, Carol Jean Earle, Peggy Everest, Lois Galbraith, Jerry Gray, Sven Groennings, Leslie Heche, Dick Huback, Barbara Ann Lewis, Elizabeth Lyser, Marcia Millu, Catherine Monroe, Pat Myers, Eleanor Neldom, Carl Peters, Marilyn Peterson, Phyllis Porter, Joan Rasper, Carole Rucker, Alan Ruff, Marilyn Santos, Ann Seuberg, Art Siler, Erna Soder, Barbara Springston, Mary Thies, Tom Tilton, Lowell Wendell, Jerry White, Walt Williams, Joanne Willits and Margie Winterton.

IT SEEMS THAT every one at school is busy with rehearsals. Between Senior Play and Operetta most people are pretty busy.

As a result of tryouts held a few weeks ago, the cast was chosen for the operetta "The Forest Prince," which will be presented April 18.

A newcomer to Acalanes, Lois La Bonti, has the female lead, and opposite her is Gary Shellenberger.

Other principles in the cast are Jayne Nodder, Nick Snell, Joanne Willits, Wayne Jacox, Cindy Kent, Bill Powers, Phil Laing, Betty Argo, Diane Osborn, Dennis Midzor, Pat Gates, Art Lassagne, Gordon Griegg and John Champlin.

Among interesting research reports given during the meetings were those concerning visual defects associated with television and also visual surveys among school children.

There's nothing just as good that's Cheaper!

It's a fact! Your travel dollar buys more comfort, more convenience, more luxury and more miles on modern streamliners than on any other form of transportation. Roundtrips in chair cars on any of the Southern Pacific "name" trains listed below cost only about 2¢ a mile or less.

Chair cars on Southern Pacific's modern streamliners have been built with your comfort the first consideration. Dust-free, draft-free air-conditioning. No glare fluorescent lighting. Soft-as-a-cloud foam-rubber seats. Lots of leg room and move-around room. Extra large windows. Feather-touch doors. Spacious washrooms. That's why Chair Cars on S. P. streamliners are the most luxurious form of all low-cost transportation.

There's nothing as good as S. P. for freight shipments, too. We have more miles of line serving more Western cities and towns than any other railroad. For fast, efficient, dependable freight service—whether carload or l.c.l.—call our nearest agent.

Sermon Sunday To Be on 'Satan,'

"Satan, the Great Deceiver" will be Pastor Luther Berven's sermon topic at the 8 and 10:45 a.m. services at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette on Sunday.

Commenting on his sermon, Pastor Berven stated:

"The cleverest trick an enemy can perform is to get his opponent to believe either that he does not exist at all or that he is a rather harmless adversary. Then men relax their guard, believing there is little or no danger.

"The cleverest trick the devil uses is to try to get people to believe that he does not exist except perhaps in their imaginations or that he is a rather cute little fellow who pulls innocent jokes on mankind. The Bible rightly calls him 'the father of lies.' There is nothing 'cute' about Satan, for he is the cause of sin and, therefore, the cause of all the unhappiness that there is in this world."

Regular monthly Family Get-Together and Potluck Supper will be held Sunday at 5 p.m.

The church council will meet Tuesday evening at 8.

Midweek Lenten Services are being held each Thursday evening at the church at 7:30 p.m.

Course Still Open

Registration is still open for Dr. Edith Bryan's new series of lectures on "Adult Psychology." The course stresses "building a happy, efficient, adult personality."

The class meets every Wednesday from 1:15 to 3:15 in Lafayette Town Hall. Mrs. Noel Teetz, Adult Education chairman of the Lafayette School P.T.A., points out that every lecture is a unit in itself and that a person may register and attend at any time during the course.

One lecture is entitled "Peace and Your Personality," with Dr. Bryan stressing "that we will have world peace when we can adjust as individuals and raise our children with tolerance and peace in mind."

Registration fee is $1. The course, under the Acaelanes Adult Education Program, is sponsored by the three P.T.A.'s here, Vallejo, Montecito and Lafayette. Child care is provided without charge.

Scout Camp Trip Was Skiing Time

Returning to Lafayette last Sunday evening acclaiming a perfect weekend in the snow was a large group of Boy Scouts of Troop 204, after spending the holidays at Dodge Ridge in the Sierras.

Accompanied by a group of adult leaders, the boys stayed at "Slide Inn" near Longbarn and enjoyed skiing at the Ridge. The boys, varying in their ability on the skis, had an opportunity to learn more about skiing from Scoutmaster Seth Blakeman, an experienced skier.

Accompanying the troop on their winter camp were "Dusty" Rhodes, R. H. Brannan, Earl Matson, Walt Read and Cy Turner.

Among the scouts were Tony Oliviera, John Bohn, Wayne Brannan, John Conklin, Cliff Ditzen, Bill Effinger, George Hampton, Harry Huffaker, Eddie Hunt, Jim Knight, John Larson, Bob Effinger, Ronnie Huffaker, Mike Latone, Ralph Legge, Jack Lloyd, Rich Markstein, Ken Matson, Robert Miles, Bill Needham, Dick Neuman, Don Ong, Larry Peterson, Billie Read, John Rinehart, Dick Ong, Glenn Rhodes, Larry Rhodes, Bob Roberts, John Ronald, Howard Schimmer, Charles Schorr, Ed Timoney, Dee Tolles, Jack Tomlinson, Buddy Turner, Richard Emery and Buzz Williams.

McCown Starts Lenten Lectures Sunday Evening

First of a series of five weekly Lenten lectures by Chester C. McCown, Ph.D., noted New Testament scholar, will be given Sunday evening at Lafayette Community Methodist Church.

Under the general title of "Triumph of the Cross," Dr. McCown's talk will be given from 6 to 7 each Sunday evening this month, followed by a half-hour fellowship and informal question period.

THE FIRST TALK will be on "The Day of Doom." Subsequent lectures will be "Jesus and Good News," March 9; "A New Age at the Dawning," March 16; "The Faithful Decision," March 23; and "Victory in Defeat," March 30.

The weekly program starts at 5:30, with organ music played by Mrs. George Shoptaugh, followed by a hymn sung led by Mr. Shoptaugh. From 6 to 7, children's groups will study "The Life of Jesus."

The program has been prepared by the church's Board of Education, of which Ned Floyd is chairman.

DR. McCOWN is professor emeritus of New Testament Literature and Interpretation at the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley. A graduate of DePaul University and Garrett Biblical Institute, he began his ministry and teaching in India.

After further study at Berlin, Heidelberg and the University of Chicago, he came to the Pacific School of Religion.

FOR 33 YEARS at that school he occupied the chair of New Testament Literature and Interpretation, and also served as dean from 1928 to 1936 and in 1946-47, and as director of the Palestine Institute from 1936.

The school conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity honoris causa in 1947. Dr. McCown received an LL.D. degree from DePaul in 1948. From 1929 to 1931 and again in 1936, he was director of the American School of Oriental Research in Jerusalem, where he was a fellow in 1920-21.

Communion Rites To Be Held at Methodist Church

Sunday will be Communion Sunday at Lafayette Community Methodist Church.

It will also be membership Sunday. A class of new members will be received at the 11 o'clock worship service. These people were invited to join the church during the Evangelistic Advance that was held in Lafayette early this month.

"The Community Methodist Church has an open communion service," state the pastors, Bishop George A. Miller and Rev. Harry E. Shaner. "We invite all who love our Lord and desire to live as Christians, with God's help, to share the Holy Communion at the altar. For those who cannot come to the altar or would rather have communion served in the pew, they will be served."

"The service of Holy Communion is a time to have a new birth, that new life once again springs up within us as we have the experience of forgiveness. The power that comes from God through Jesus that comes into our lives and makes us again a new person—that is Holy Communion."

Tuberous Begonias Brighten Up Shady Spots—Here's How to Cultivate Them

By BERT WRIGHT

FOR SUMMER-LONG brilliance on difficult-to-plant northern exposures or beneath trees throwing a dense shade part of the day, nothing can compete with tuberous begonias.

Available in all shades of red as well as orange, peach, white, pink and yellow, these low-growing but large-flowered plants require little care except watering, once they are planted in the right kind of soil.

A soil high in organic matter and containing plenty of sand is a "must" for tuberous begonias. They practically refuse to grow at all in a heavy clay soil.

IT WILL SOON be time to start the tubers by placing them in a warm location until small red buds appear on the top of the tuber. When these show up, put the tubers in flats or in pots, nearly covering them with soil, and leave them in a sunny window or hot bed until they are two or three inches high.

Prepare a special soil in the begonia bed incorporating plenty of sand, peat moss and/or compost in heavy soils and an even larger amount of organic material in naturally sandy soils.

At the same time, broadcast a double handful of plant food over each square yard of the bed, work it into the soil and then water thoroughly.

AFTER THE SOIL has dried out

Mints Pave Way To Summer Camp

Canyon Camp Fire Girls and Bluebirds who sold 120 boxes of mints will go to Camp Celio for two weeks. The hard working girls are Maureen Malvey, Jackie Chessum, Marcela Reiter, Judy Miller and Mary Rice. Girls who sold 75 boxes of mints will go to camp for one week; they are Lonna Foster and Pamela Perry.

Those who sold 45 boxes and will go to town camp are Donna Goss, Barbara Goss and Verna Goss.

The three girls who sold 15 boxes for a mint honor are Patsy Crawford, Barbara Wells and Sheila Jacobs.

The girls are especially thankful to everyone for helping them earn their way to camp, and especially for their leaders, Mrs. George Chessum and Mrs. Allen Crawford.

Merry-Go-Round Horse Is Sought

Prudy Myers of 714 Los Palos Drive just loves horses. She'd like "more than anything in the world" to get an old merry-go-round horse because she cannot quite handle a real horse yet. Prudy is 10 years old.

Prudy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Myers, wrote to the editor of the Oakland Tribune in hopes he would know where she might find a merry-go-round horse. He didn't know but he printed her letter in the Knaves February 21. Her letter said:

"I love horses very much. I can not quite handle a horse yet. I always play with an old saw horse and an old saddle."

"I would like very much, in fact more than anything in the world to have a horse. I am trying to get an old merry-go-round horse. My mother and dad would get me one if they could find one, but they can not find one."

Does anyone know of an "old merry-go-round" horse? If you do, the Myers' would appreciate your calling them at Lafayette 4707.

BILL
for 100 kilowatt-hours of electricity and 100 therms of gas for a home in a typical California city:

In February 1938 $9.34
At proposed rates $8.90
Today: $8.25

Since early 1938, P. G. and E. home rates have been cut sharply in five separate years . . . in April 1938, in 1939, 1940, 1943 and 1946! That brought rates way down. They were raised only moderately during the last three years. Now, with continued pressure of rising taxes, wages and equipment costs, we've had to apply to the California Public Utilities Commission for new electric rates—increased rates to provide sufficient earnings to continue to attract the new capital required to meet the service demands of our customers. But even the increase we're asking won't bring your typical gas and electric bill up to what it was for the same use in 1938!

P. G. and E. wage rates are up 114% for weekly and daily employees. In 1938 our taxes were $17 million—last year they were $66 million. Yet our present domestic rates are far below the 1938 level. While rates must be raised, the P. G. and E. bill for a typical home will still be less than in 1938.

Gas and Electricity will still be cheap in California under the higher rates we've asked for. As a matter of fact, the typical P. G. and E. residential bill for gas and electricity in a California city will still be about 1/3 less than the average of the bills in cities of similar size outside California.

Can you think of anything else you buy that costs less than in 1938? . . . gas and electricity are big bargains!

Cesar Brion House Guest of DeAngelis Family

Cesar Brion, the outstanding heavyweight boxer from Argentina, has been a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Silvio DeAngelis of Lower Happy Valley.

Brion is here to fight Bob Dunlap in San Francisco on Monday. The winner is scheduled to take a step up the ladder toward the heavyweight crown.

DeAngelis is from South America and met Brion through a letter from his brother.

Brion was a house guest of the DeAngelis when he was last in the Bay Area, at which time he fought an outstanding fight against Joe Louis.

The DeAngelis family describes Brion as a gentleman in every respect, and a strong friendship has grown up.

"Out of the ring he is mild-mannered and a kind-hearted person," says Mrs. DeAngelis.

In the ring he is rated as a top prospect for the heavyweight crown and is a fighter all the way who gives and takes a punch well.

HELPFUL HINTS
FROM MILTIE

Cost of fire gutted home, $10,000. Cost of the inexpensive fire extinguisher which could have prevented the loss—$2.00. Most home fires start small and could easily be handled with a hand fire extinguisher—if you had one. Get one you can fit into a clip holder in your kitchen and another for the basement—especially if your husband has his workshop down there. Shavings and paints are wonderful fuels. If everyone would take this preventive action, fire losses would be cut to a fraction of their present volume.

This is a very practical and noble idea, especially out here where there are so many isolated homes. Our fire departments in this area are very good, but it would be much more sensible to stop a small fire right now rather than wait until the firemen arrive.

Borghesani Tops League Scoring With 233 Points

Bob Borghesani, ace pivot man of Coach Lee Arth's championship contenders, is leading the individual scoring race with 233 points in 12 games for a 19.4 average, which is a new county mark.

His closest contender is Billy Williams, Antioch's pride and joy, who has a 213 total in 11 games and one to go.

That one game takes place tonight against Antioch, and Williams will be shooting to overcome Bob's 20-point bulge.

Williams is a one-man team and does a high percentage of his team's shooting and, with his coaches' avowed purpose of capturing the scoring crown, may turn the trick.

THE FACT REMAINS that Bob has sat a good part of many games on the bench, while Williams has gone the route in every game.

Bob is definitely a team player and takes few shots, often averaging 50 per cent or better on his shots from the floor.

He is especially effective on the boards and appears headed to repeat as All-County, an honor which he earned last year as a Junior.

WILLIAMS APPEARS a lead-pipe cinch as an All-County guard. Both are top shots from the floor or free throw line.

Borghesani is an even keel player who usually ends up as high scorer, and is a top sportsman who is looked up to by teammates, opponents and officials and spectators.

HE IS a three-letterman, playing first string tackle in football and pitching on the baseball nine, where he is outstanding.

Six-foot-four and 210, he is a college prospect, with more than one coach eyeing him.

He and the Dons' two ace forwards, Art Siler and Bob Kleckner, have formed the Bay Area's most formidable forward basketball trio. They have run up scores in league play one point shy of a 60 average.

Walnut Branch Seventh Highest In Care of Tots

Walnut Branch of Childrens Hospital of the East Bay was congratulated on being the seventh highest branch in providing financial care for children at the hospital at an annual meeting recently of the 69 branches of the organization.

Walnut Branch was organized in 1942 by a group of young women who were determined that expert medical and hospital care should not be denied any child in Contra Costa County, regardless of family financial circumstances.

The local branch's membership has increased to 40 women from Walnut Creek, Concord, Danville and Lafayette. They were lavish in their praise of merchants, organizations and residents of the community in giving wholehearted support to the branch.

New Girl Scout Director Honored By Area Council

El Nido Rancho was filled to capacity Wednesday at a luncheon meeting of the Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Council to honor the executive director, Jeanne Christy.

Miss Christy received her B.S. degree in mathematics from Wooster College, Wooster, Ohio, and her M. A. degree in social work from the University of Pittsburgh.

She has served as executive director of Allegheny County at Pittsburgh, Pa., and as camp advisor in Region three, comprising Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

Mrs. Donald Krotz, first vice-president and council committee chairman, introduced the program, "Meet the Board," with Mrs. R. B. Elving, a leader, coordinating the program and business meeting with a humorous reading.

Mrs. Walter Roberts, program chairman, announced the International Pageant to be held at Acalanes High School on March 14, and the Curved Bar Court of Award on May 6.

The budget for the year was presented by the finance chairman, Mrs. J. Wayland Barnette.

Mrs. Penny Glidden, camp coordinating chairman, announced the Day Camp Committee recommendation, which was passed by the council, to hold this summer's sessions in Upper Mitchell Canyon.

In addition to committee reports, the revised by-laws were presented by Mrs. Harry Knight.

Primary changes were the election of officers in January to conform with the fiscal year, the formation of a field committee and an elective nominating committee.

To conform with these changes the following board members were approved to serve for the coming year:

President, Mrs. George Jensen of Lafayette; first vice-president, Mrs. Donald Krotz, Orinda; secretary, Mrs. Harry Knight; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Jack Pedder, Lafayette; treasurer, Mrs. N. C. Cornwall; registrar, Mrs. Wellington Ray, Orinda; president of Leaders Association, Mrs. C. Wikander, Walnut Creek; public relations, Mrs. W. Rosemont, Pleasant Hill; camp coordinating chairman, Mrs. Penny Glidden, Pleasant Hill; finance, Mrs. J. Wayland Barnette, Lafayette; organization, Mrs. Robert Beaton, Pleasant Hill; program, Mrs. Walter Roberts, Walnut Creek; training, Mrs. Burwell Sparlock, Lafayette; nominating membership, Mrs. J. L. Ramelli, Walnut Creek.

District chairmen — Ygnacio, Mrs. M. J. Taylor; Alamo, Mrs. M. Williams; Walnut Creek, Mrs. L. H. Squires; Lafayette, Mrs. W. Barrows; Orinda, Mrs. J. Gompertz; Danville, Mrs. William Marsh; Pleasant Hill, Mrs. L. L. Vance.

The offices of second vice-president and staff and office chairmanship remain to be filled.

The council holds three meetings yearly. The next will be in April with Pleasant Hill and Ygnacio Valley Districts as hostesses.

Junior College Student Presides At Convention

Ernest Lambert of Orinda presided at the state convention of the Distributive Education Clubs of California in San Francisco last Friday and Saturday.

Reginald Biggs of Walnut Creek, vice-president and manager of the Emporium in San Francisco, where the business meeting was held, gave the welcome address.

As a result of the 23-year-old Orinda's year and a half of training at East Contra Costa Junior College in retailing and marketing, during which he also held a part-time job at Macy's, he will get a year's practical factory experience in Los Angeles with an outstanding manufacturer of men's sportswear. It is expected he will be made their representative for northern California, according to Norris Pope, his instructor.

He has served as president of the D. E. club at East Campus and represented his group at the 1951 Tulsa national convention. He was interviewed on KRON's "Exclusively Yours" television program Friday afternoon.

Attending the convention from East Campus were Al Menegus, George Cockerton, Robert Champion and Al Knight of Walnut Creek and Shirley Van Cleave of Lafayette.

Legion Oration Monday Night for High Schoolers

Ninth District American Legion's annual oratory contest for high school students throughout Contra Costa County will be held Monday night at 8 o'clock at Veterans Memorial Building in Lafayette.

Paul N. Lacey of Pittsburg, district chairman, will be in charge of the event.

This will be the "first rung" in the yearly competition. Winners will go on to the state contest, from which winners will go to the national competition.

Mrs. H. Thornbro New Chapter Member

Mrs. Henry Thornbro of Lafayette was among five pledgees initiated into the Beta Chapter of Beta Epsilon Chi at a candlelight ceremony recently at the Oakland home of Mrs. A. Ralph Thaten. Announcement was made by Mrs. J. W. Scott of St. Mary's Road, Lafayette, who is vice-president of the organization.

Next meeting will be held next Friday, March 7, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Ralph Martin of Van Cleave Lane in Walnut Creek.

Jennings Takes Cognizance of Us

Quip from Dean Jennings' column "It's News to Me," in the S. F. Chronicle about the local "Arty Party" event held at Town Hall recently —

"Onward with the fine arts: One of my agents has just discovered the reason for that near-riot at the very social party given in Lafayette the other night by the Art League of the East Bay.

"Seems they had a nude model behind a curtain and they charged 25 cents per person for pencil and paper to sketch the lassie. The sponsors thought it was quite encouraging to see so many people suddenly showing an unsuspecting talent for art."

Also, a paragraph devoted to Jay Bedsworth's talents says:
"Memo to magic lovers: The greatest card manipulator I've ever seen is not a pro at all, but a fellow named Jay Bedsworth who owns the Tunnel Inn at Lafayette. (Caution: Don't ask him to play poker, bridge, pinhole or anything. He can deal himself four aces at will)."

Junior League to Stage Fashion Show Wednes. Afternoon

Next Wednesday there will be a fashion show and luncheon at the Walnut Creek Art and garden Center, sponsored by the Junior League of Oakland, with all proceeds going for charity. Lunch will be served at 12:30.

Summer fashions will be provided by Hill 'N Dale of Lafayette.

From Orinda the models will be Mesdames Frank Dunn, and Paul Demeter. Mrs. Oliver Hamlin, Mrs. Leland Scott Jr., and Mrs. Richard Ward from Lafayette and Mrs. Ogden Kiesel from Walnut Creek will also model.

Mrs. James Black and Mrs. Lee Kidwell of Walnut Creek will serve. Helping them will be Mrs. George Rice and Mrs. Robert Eshleman from Lafayette and Mrs. Robert Scott of Orinda.

Reservations are necessary and can be made at the Art and Garden Center, Walnut Creek 6399, or the Oakland Junior League office, Thornwall 3-8303.

Happy Birthday to You

PENNY MARCH

Penny March celebrated her 11th birthday February 2 with a luncheon at her home followed by a skating party at Rollerland. With her were Jody Gompertz, Mary Dean, Sheryl Rasmussen, Terry Goodwin, Nancy Veitch, Judy Swanson and Yvonne Nicolet.

SUSAN KISNER

When Susan Kisner was nine years old February 1 she invited her friends for an early supper party at her home. Sharing the fun were Cheri Sharp, Jill Taylor, Patty Ann Brown, Carolyn Cullen, Carole March, Deborah Smith, Patty Smith and Sandra Thurston.

KIT AND PETE

A two-family party helped to celebrate the birthdays of Kit Livingston and Peter Buchter February 7. With their brothers and sisters, mothers and fathers at the Livingston home, Kit had a cake for her third birthday and Peter had a cake for his fourth birthday, after supper.

BETSY ANN KILBURN

A luncheon at home observed Betsy Ann Kilburn's seventh birthday February 9. After the feast the young guests busied themselves with color books and crayons. At the party were Allison Hanford, Jill Taylor, Sheryl Puckler, Ann Marie Lincoln, Kath Stafford, Karen Stafford and Betsy Ann's sister Mary Lou.

DIANE HALLSTED

A skating party at Rollerland followed by luncheon at her home celebrated Diane Hallsted's ninth birthday. Though she was nine on January 18, Diane waited until February 9, for her party, when Rollerland was available. Skating with her were Linda Shierly, Linda Frederickson, Joanne Byron, Mary Ann Rodden, Susan Carlson, Sharon Carlson, Connie Cook, Suzanne Arighi, Karen Pedersen, Linda Thompson, Charlotte Kimball, Joan Radonich, Claire Ciancurilo, Carol Brown and Diane's brother, Scott Hallsted.

RICHARD MEURCK

A circus dinner of hot dogs, ice cream and cake celebrated Richard Meurck's fifth birthday on February 8. Games and prizes completed the party for his friends. With him were Peter Pollaczek, Jackie Creighton, Sarah Hanlin, Larry Livingston, Joanne Boyesen, Pat Dewing, Ronnie Ganiats, Julie Messersmith, Tommie Archer and Richard's sister, Linda.

DICKIE SUTLIFF

Wiener cooked outside but ice cream and cake eaten inside tell the story of Dickie Sutliff's birthday on February 9. After the games the boys went to the movies at the Orinda Theater. With him were Rickie Kenall, Bill Sutliff, Mike Sorem, Chris Felchlin, Rickie Collins, Billy Schwark, Greg DeWitt, Larry Hun, Gary Holtwick, Randy March, Tommy Kisner and Tommy Rogers.

MAXWELL MILTON

A cowboy party complete with ice cream and cake, and movies at home celebrated Maxwell Milton's fifth birthday February 8. Present were Bill Young, Sally Young, Greg Maddox, Rickie Collins, Don Greg Maddox, Rickie Collins, Don Vicki Sexson, John Wetherbe, Karen Wetherbe, Tommy Unruh, Eric Unruh and Richard Meyers.

GERRIE OLSEN

On her ninth birthday February 9 Gerrie Olsen invited her friends to luncheon at home and then took them to the movies in Walnut Creek. With her were Patty Boehm, Sue Tharp, Carolyn Cook, Linda Benson, Margie Williams, Diane Traverso, Betty Theile, Judy Ageno, Barbara Davis, Michele Herrer, Judith Hopkins and Judith Nicolayson.

DOUGLAS DE COSTA

JOHNATHAN JENSEN

Twelve of his friends went with Johnathan Jensen to Rollerland on his eighth birthday February 9. The boys and girls had dessert at his home before driving into Oakland.

JEAN BODFISH

A luncheon at the Orinda Country Club celebrated Jean Bodfish's 11th birthday February 9. After lunch, Jean took her friends to the show at the Orinda Theater. With her were her sister, Margaret Bodfish, Mary Dean, Lynda Eberhart, Rochelle Elliott, Jody Gompertz, Judy Henderson, Margaret eHaley, Penny Marsh, Susan Ray, Sheryl Rasmussen, Christine Romine, Judy Swanson, Gail Sorem and Nancy Veitch.

KATHLEEN FITZGERALD

When Kathleen Fitzgerald was 10 on February 9, she invited her friends for luncheon at her home. After the Valentine theme lunch the girls played games, and ended the afternoon with a baseball game. Present were Babette Ambler, Patty Wilke, Patty Murphy, Cynthia Neuhaus and Kathleen's sister, Karen.

KIM SMITH

When Kim Smith was eight years old on February 2, he invited his friends for luncheon at his home and then took his guests (with his mother, Mrs. R. K. Smith) to see the "Wizard of Oz" in Berkeley. With him were Ian Morrison, Peter Mills, Jimmy Mills, Tom Dinsmore, Peter Lamb, Clay Sorrick, Jamie Freeman, Bunky Kahl, Joan Borden, Holly Borden, Ricky Borden, Loren Smith, Roger Smith and Kit Von Gunther.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

To aid those who are stricken with polio is a service deserving attention of all. While miraculous cures are effected, lifting many a stricken heart from the harrowing care of a crippled child, the cost of such aid would be beyond the reach of most families visited by this dreaded disease.

We of Orinda apparently have been satisfied by passively submitting to a drive by mail, to which we responded to the call for help, while all other surrounding communities enthusiastically cooperated with the national 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. porch light drive on January 31.

It was interesting to note that the residents of Moraga Del Rey responded gallantly to an entirely spontaneous call to do something about this laxity. At 7 p.m. one of the neighbors in Moraga Del Rey started to arouse a representative group of nine men, who, in spite of being in the midst of evening meals, went into action in 30 minutes and called on approximately 104 homes in one hour's effort. They called on each home in spite of the irregular terrain and received voluntary contributions of over $105.

It was felt at the time that these folks were acting beyond the jurisdiction of Orinda's mail drive, but think of how much more we could have helped, if all the community groups would have responded in similar fashion. The gentlemen who made the calls found the action stimulating and effective and should be congratulated for their action on behalf of all Orinda.

There has been and still is evidence of poor community spirit in Orinda. What we need is a great deal more community effort, as witnessed by the bus station and scout house projects and the community center problem.

Well, roll up your sleeves — get busy — help with the tree-planting program — and put a rush on the two above projects.

Am I your neighbor, your best friend or a sniper from Danville?

Lots of Flu but Not In Epidemic Stage

By LIONEL HORWITZ

Have you heard there's a lot of flu going around? We did and decided to check up on the matter with Dr. Henrik Blum, county health officer.

Dr. Blum said flu is common, but there isn't anything like an epidemic "Cases of flu are not reported to the county," he said. "So we have no way of knowing how much is occurring."

"BUT WE CAN get a good indication of it by checking school attendance figures. There has been some increase, but nothing significant."

"That's in contrast with some other parts of the state."

Dr. Blum, who had an attack himself recently, said flu makes you feel completely all in — achy and sore all over. Sometimes you get on upset stomach, headache and a moderate fever.

"THERE ARE SEVERAL different strains of flu and they have various offshoots," he said. "We've had mild forms of it in recent years."

Then Dr. Blum brought up something even more important about health.

"We've had more than the usual frequency of Streptococcus disease," he said. "It's in the form of scarlet fever or scarletina — the symptoms are a sore throat and a rash."

"WE URGED IMMEDIATE medical attention — don't let it go because weeks or months later, you may get damage to the kidney or heart. The strep condition is comparatively easy to care for, but the later effects aren't."

He said there's reason to believe that strep infections often are the forerunners of rheumatic fever.

High School Bond Issue Backed by Moraga Valley

Members of the Moraga Valley Improvement Club have unanimously okayed the $1,500,000 bond issue being sought by the Acalanes High School District to meet the demands for an extensive school building program.

Acalanes High School District Administrator Ross Reagan met with Moraga Valley Improvement Club members last week to outline the building and expansion program proposed by the school district board of trustees.

Reagan emphasized that voting of additional bonds will not affect the tax rate since increased assessment, nurtured by people moving into the area, will supply the bulk of needed funds.

Quered on the primary reason for constructing additional secondary school facilities, Reagan pointed up surveys made by school officials and other agencies estimating the high school age population of the area at approximately 4800 students by 1960—four times what it is now.

Reagan explained the board's plan of competing facilities at Las Lomas High School in Walnut Creek and starting construction on the newly acquired Orinda school site with a basic school plant operating in Orinda by 1955.

Reagan stated that the heavy student enrollment by 1960 probably will necessitate the construction of a fourth secondary school plant somewhere in the district.

"A RECENT HOUSE count of homes under construction tallies more than 1000 homes in the building stage within the high school district," Reagan stated.

"A count of students now in the elementary grades and anticipated continuance of the present rate of population growth in this area indicate that the high school housing problem is fast becoming acute."

"The building facilities provided by the proposed bond issue are needed badly and needed soon," Reagan asserted.

The Moraga Valley club is the second public group to go on record okaying expanded school facilities. Last month a public meeting of interested citizens and community organization representatives unanimously endorsed the Acalanes District School Board's bond issue proposals.

Trail Ride Association Has Breakfast, Ride

Concord-Mt. Diablo Trail Ride Association took their first three-hour pleasure ride February 17.

About 50 members of the association had breakfast at the Clayton ranch home of R. B. Burnett, chairman. Assisting Burnett were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McBride, Lucile Alexander, Tom Smith and Dorothy B. Vaughn.

One of the 12 directors of the organization is responsible each month for a day's fun. Prosper Olivera of Concord is chairman of March's event.

Assemblyman R. L. Condon Announces Candidacy for Congress in 6th District

Assemblyman Robert L. Condon, Walnut Creek, announced this week he is a candidate for representative of the new Sixth Congressional District.

"IF ELECTED, I intend to serve this new area as conscientiously as I have attempted to represent my own county in Sacramento," Condon said.

"I intend to make a vigorous campaign," he said. "I believe that integrity in government must be maintained. Corruption in public life must be exposed relentlessly and I pledge myself to this end."

Condon, a Democrat, said he will file on both Democratic and Republican tickets.

CONDON WAS ELECTED twice to the State Legislature from this county. He is a 39-year-old attorney, who lives with his wife and daughter. His World War II record includes service as a combat infantryman in Europe with a Silver Star for gallantry in action.

"My candidacy has been urged by many business, labor, professional, and civic groups in both Solano and Contra Costa Counties who feel that an experienced legislator should represent this vital defense area in these critical times," he said.

Representative George P. Miller, Alameda, who served the old Sixth District, has decided to run for reelection in his new home district.

Fund Committee To Decide on Boy Scout Drive

Whether the Meridian Boy Scout District will conduct an independent finance drive in the future or whether it will continue to conduct an annual joint drive with the Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Council remained undecided after Tuesday night's district committee, according to Gordon Hawkins, district scout executive.

Hawkins reported that after considerable pro and con discussion the committee, on motion of Jo A. Shockey, unanimously voted full authority for the finance committee to act in the matter after meeting with Girl Scout representatives.

MORRIS BROWNING, new finance chairman, was introduced by District Chairman Joe F. Conley. Browning replaces H. W. Werner, whose letter of resignation because of the pressure of business was accepted.

The finance committee intends to meet with Girl Scout representatives in the near future, according to Hawkins.

SOME 42 MEN, representing every community in the district and most scouting units, were at the meeting at Acalanes High School. Discussion of finance drive possibilities followed a decision which was made last month to hold a separate drive but which came up for reconsideration because of objections by scout group representatives who were not present at the first meeting.

Victor Lindblad, Mt. Diablo Council executive, explained the methods of the council in determining budget requirements of the various districts.

THE COUNCIL BUDGET for 1952 totals $100,000. Of this, $17,416 is the Meridian District's budget. Over $25,000 was raised in last fall's joint Boy Scout-Girl Scout drive in this area, with the result that each organization gets over $11,000 — leaving the Boy Scout district some $6000 short on its budget requirements.

Proponents of a separate drive argue that more money can be raised that way, while opponents claim that the most effective campaign is a joint one.

Adult Center's Open House Set For March 18

Acalanes Adult Center will have its first open house March 18 at Acalanes High School. The classes that are regularly in session that evening will be the "hosts." There will be a program in the gym at 8 p.m., and the Symphony Orchestra, the Walnut Creek Band and the Chorus of Elijah will perform.

Purpose of the open house is to further acquaint the citizens with the work of the Adult Center, according to Director George Houghton.

At present more than 1500 students are enrolled in approximately 48 classes. Classes are being given in Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek, besides Acalanes High School.

One of the most popular courses is starting again Monday. This is a course in landscape gardening, conducted by Floyd Cowan.

Persons interested are requested to register early. The spring semester will start April 14, right after Easter vacation. A number of new courses are being planned. People who would like a special course to meet their needs should contact the Adult Education director.

Red Cross Fund Drive Begins Tomorrow, Goal Here Is $24,000

The Red Cross fund drive for $24,000 will begin tomorrow, Chairman Edmund Barnett announced.

Barnett said that $19,000 will remain in the Walnut Creek chapter area for local use.

To stress the need for Red Cross service in this area, Barnett this week released the chapter's 1951 budget figures.

Of the $23,688.98 budget, $2,774.36 was spent for general expenses, $2,660 for administrative salaries; $1,505.92 for camp and hospital work; $1,500 for salaries under the home service department; and $1,443.36 for financial assistance to the homeless, needy and servicemen. Ten thousand dollars was put into the chapter's new building in Walnut Creek.

Community chairman for the coming drive are: Walnut Creek north, Mrs. Arrell Theobald; Walnut Creek south, Mrs. Sylvia C. Hull; Walnut Creek business area, Larry Barnholtz; Lafayette, Mrs. Paul May and Mrs. Willard Hayes; Orinda, Mrs. William S. Servicemen Give 247 Pints Blood - For Servicemen

Once again a group of volunteers from the Mt. Diablo Red Cross chapter have gone to Camp Stoneman for a Blood Bank Day with the servicemen.

February 12 was the day, and the following volunteers helped in the collection of 247 pints of blood from servicemen for our servicemen:

Mesdames Radford, Emery, Hamilton, Jeffries, Barnett, Hood, Wiley, Boomer, Auslund, Hansen, Johnson, Sorensen, Creager, Paulding, Sloan, Slovens, Hammonds and Pittman and Miss Helen Burling.

Service clubs in the area have helped in this project. Their donation of money to buy food supplies for the donors has made it possible for the group to continue going to Stoneman and to run the canteen there.

Red Cross and donor thanks go to the Lafayette Lions, the Orinda Lions, Walnut Creek Kiwanis, Lafayette Rotary Club, the Castle Hill Club and an anonymous donor. Total gifts were $285.

SPRING FEVER

With spring on its way, the theme of the Sophomore Hop will be "Spring Fever." Chairmen for the March 21 affair are Sue Small, refreshments; Carolyn Demeter, bids; Pat Spencer, publicity; Rod Kisting, tickets, and Ray Williamson, clean-up.

Plans are also under way for a wonderful Junior-Senior Banquet. Sorry, even though I am a junior and know some of the plans, I can't tell you much because this dinner is supposed to be a surprise to the Seniors and they are not to know a thing about it until they walk in the school cafeteria on March 7.

But Sharon Eggerts and Tom Morrish, two of the Junior class officers are in charge of the dinner; Marianne Sumers and Ned Davis, entertainment; Phil Simmons, head waiter; and Dave Larson heads the clean-up committee. Lynn Sellman and her crew will work with the decorations while Bill Bedard and the stage crew will be on hand to help with the lighting. Jim Robertson is in charge of the programs.

Already 200 have made reservations.

MISS ACALANES
The "Miss Acalanes of 1952" contest got off to a good start in last Monday's issue of the Blueprint. Prizes for the lucky winner are pouring in every day. So far she will win perfume, a pearl choker lipstick, sewing lessons, ice cream and gasoline. The contest will close on April 21, so be sure and get a paper and vote for your favorite girl.

ADMINISTRATION PLANS
Even the administration has some plans for the future. They are starting to plan the programs for classes of students who will be at Acalanes next year. The started with the Juniors (this year) on February 25, and will start with the Sophomores and Freshmen on March 10 and 24, respectively.

PLAYOFF
Last week the girls P.E. classes held a playoff of the champion teams. Teams in the race were those of Jane Haworth, Jean Antion, Pat Gregg, Marge Dineem, Rosanne Sylvia, Barbara Hansen and Ann Champlin. The final game between the teams of Marge Dineem and Rosanne Sylvia was played last Friday with Sylvia winning by a score of 4 to 2.

Playing on the top team were Carol Van Cleave, Naomi Pettin-gail, Carol Rectine, Sandra Logue and Georgia Powell while on Marge's team we find Phyllis Anderson, Delores Landes, Sandra Schroder, Virginia Spurlock, Joan Allen and Pat Sandy.

AT THE GAME

PARTY-GOER
Richard Knoble tells me he was one of the many people who attended the giant G.E. party held recently. He says that he is the only one from Acalanes that he knows about who attended the shindig. Richard even had his picture on the front page of one of the large city papers. See you next week!

Naval Reserve To Hear Braly

Colonel William C. Braly (retired) will speak on "Experiences on Corregidor" before the U. S. Naval Reserve Volunteer Composite Unit 12-25 at Acalanes High School Tuesday night at 7:30.

Braly, a resident of Orinda, retired from the Army after 21 years of active duty. He was on the staff of the commanding general of harbor defenses at Manila Bay for two and a half year prior to Pearl Harbor. His personal diary was recovered after World War II from a Japanese prisoner.

In charge of the meeting will be Lieutenant Commander Stanish Massie of the U. S. Naval Reserve.

Contractors Meet Next Wednesday

Regular monthly meeting of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County will be held Wednesday, 7 p.m., at Paul's Place, Martinez, according to Robert R. Platt, president.

The contractor will see results of two housing development merchandising contests compiled into a film called "Smart Ideas Sell Houses."

Attendance Hike Gets Area Schools New State Funds

Additional state funds have been given to area schools because of increased attendance.

County Superintendent B. O. Wilson said yesterday the increase was made because of the large growth in attendance during the first quarter of 1951-52.

Growth percentages were: Orinda, 37 per cent; Walnut Creek, 24 per cent; and Alamo, 20 per cent. Acalanes High School increased 18 per cent.

New funds given to the schools were: Orinda, $14,211.95; Walnut Creek, $20,440.16; Alamo, $25,225.12; and Acalanes, $84,077.09.

Wilson explained that until this year funds were appropriated on the basis of the previous year's attendance. "New legislation," he said, "rectifies this situation by granting funds on the basis of current attendance, which districts report by January 15 and by June 10, as well as annually."

Junior Chamber Charter Banquet Being Planned

Mt. Diablo Junior Chamber of Commerce held its second regular semi-monthly meeting at El Nido Rancho in Lafayette Monday night.

Dick Emory of Walnut Creek, secretary, who is chairman of the charter committee, announced plans for holding the Charter Presentation Banquet at El Nido on Monday, March 31, 8 p.m.

Plans include presentation of the state charter by Dain Domich of Sacramento, president of the California State Junior Chamber of Commerce, and presentation of the national charter by King Parker, candidate for the State Assembly from Walnut Creek and a vice-president of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Ed McCauley of Walnut Creek, membership chairman, announced the goal of increasing the present membership by March 31 so that it will have 50 charter members. McCauley pointed out that regular membership is open to any young man between 21 and 35 who is interested in the improvement of himself and the community. Meetings are held at El Nido on the second and fourth Mondays of each month starting at 8 p.m.

The group was addressed by Robert McNary of Berkeley, who discussed fluoridation of drinking water as a preventative of tooth decay. McNary pointed out that the California State Junior Chamber of Commerce and its local chapters have done much to advance the cause of fluoridation in California and discussed the progress of the project in this area.

He reported that the directors of the East Bay Municipal Utility District have stated that they consider legislation to be necessary before fluoridation can be added to water supplied by the district.

Architects Address 30 Acalanes Students

Thirty Acalanes Dons heard Floyd Comstock, architect of Walnut Creek, and Sewall Smith, architect of Lafayette and originator of the new parlor game "Boom," speak on architecture and construction work as potential sources of livelihood.

The group met last week in the Acalanes library. The conference is one of many such panels held each week on vocations in which students have expressed interest.

High School District Board Meets Tuesday

The regular March meeting of the Acalanes High School District Board of Trustees will be held Tuesday, 8 p.m., at Acalanes High School.

Register for the next election.

Night Driving Care Will Cut Accidents

It may shock some automobile drivers to learn that their "driving vision" is less efficient at night than by day, but it is a truth that cannot be learned too quickly. In fact, this failing affects at least 20,000,000 of the nation's 60,000,000 drivers. So it seems to behoove all drivers to be especially careful after dark.

You may have the night vision of an owl, but if one out of every three motorists you pass is below par the added hazard becomes obvious. What should you do about it?

To begin with, every driver should slow down when dusk arrives, whether vision is good, fair, poor or downright bad at night. Bad driving vision and excessive speeds at night together are largely to blame for the serious increases that have occurred in nighttime traffic fatalities since 1946.

Slower speed gives a driver sufficient control of his car to meet the increased hazards of darkness. Every driver who has seen a pedestrian suddenly loom up in the headlights, or has suffered momentary blindness from headlight glare, should be able to appreciate these hazards, which can be minimized by slower nighttime speeds.

Garden Club Installs Officers; Evers President

Albert E. Evers of Lafayette was installed as president of Mt. Diablo Men's Garden Club Monday night at a dinner meeting at Planters Dock.

A. M. Goff of Walnut Creek was installed as vice-president. Talbot Taylor of Martinez as treasurer and Lloyd F. Smith of Martinez as secretary.

Abe Leach of Walnut Creek, president emeritus of the Oakland Spring Flower Show, acted as installing officer.

"Design of a Spring Garden" was the subject of the speaker, Ernest Wertheim, well-known landscape architect.

George H. Conner of Alamo is the outgoing president.

Vote May 16 for J.C., Acalanes, Local Trustees

Two Contra Costa Junior College trustees and 43 other trustees of public schools in the county will be named in the 1952 election this spring.

County Superintendent B. O. Wilson announced today that voters may register until March 22 in order to cast their ballots for school trustees on May 16. April 16 is the deadline for trustee candidates to file with the superintendent.

On the five-man board of the Contra Costa Junior College the terms of Bert Coffey of Richmond and George R. Gordon of Martinez are expiring. Both have served on the board since the formation of the district in 1949.

Others whose terms will expire in the Lafayette-Orinda area are: Lafayette — M. H. Stanley; Orinda — Anthony Cianciarulo and Mrs. Catherine Schwarck; Acalanes High School — Carl Newbury and William B. Freeman.

Theosophy Talk By Bartholomew

George A. Bartholomew of Walnut Creek will be the speaker at the public meeting of the Contra Costa Branch of the Theosophical Society Sunday, 8 p.m., in the Community Room of the Coast Counties Gas building at 1335 Bonanza.

His topic will be "Life After Death." He is an artist and long-time resident of Walnut Creek.

Bartholomew is president of the Berkeley branch of the society, but when his office expires in June he is expected to lead the activities of the Contra Costa Branch.

'Wizard of Oz' Scores Big Hit

By THE REVIEWER

Cyclones come and cyclones go but such magic as found in "The Wizard of Oz" live on in the hearts of children and adults.

And the packed Acalanes auditorium last Saturday afternoon, reverberating with the very vocal delight of youngsters, proved again that the cyclone which transported Dorothy's house to the Land of Oz was just the right sort of high-jinks.

THE BERKELEY HIGH SCHOOL group of the East Bay Children's Theater gave an excellent performance, under sponsorship of the Orinda Mothers Club. Dorothy, her dog, To-To, the Scarecrow, the Tin Woodman and the Cowardly Lion were very real—as were the Wizard, Glinda the Good and the others.

As for the Wicked Witch of the East, she was real, too, but she didn't kid anyone, despite her ferocious yips and snarls. Everyone in the audience knew she'd get her come-uppance, and, sure enough, she did!

A GOOD TOUCH after the play was the mingling of the actors with the audience. What better proof that the land of Oz is an actuality? The Mothers Club deserves a great big hand for bringing the production to this area.

SPORTS

Signs of Spring, Somewhat Dampened, Emerge in Don Spring Sport Practice

The rains came, may still be coming, with the result that training for spring sports has been dampened, to put it mildly. Work has been in progress the past few weeks on the Acalanes track and baseball area, and they are in the best shape they have been in at this time of the year for many a moon.

The problem now is to get enough sunshine to dry the area sufficiently to be used.

GOLF IS HAVING its problems as word is awaited as to when they may use the golf course for practice, and matches.

The baseball field is definitely the outstanding diamond in Contra Costa if not in Northern California. The only thing it lacks to be on a par with the Oaks is a fence.

The infield grass has been fertilized, base paths have been cut to give it a well-manicured appearance.

The baseball squad will be cut to 40. Each candidate will receive a good tryout with tests on hitting, fielding, throwing and base running going on for a week to 10 days before the initial trimming down.

One important factor will be the aspirants' year in school and previous experience. Freshmen and Sophomores will be held if they show promise of developing.

A Junior will have to be a definite prospect for next year's Varsity, while a Senior will have to make this year's Varsity squad.

PROBABLY THE MOST unpleasant part of coaching is cutting a squad. It isn't difficult where a boy is just going through the motions and really not vitally interested.

The hard part comes when a boy is vitally interested and doing his level best.

Unfortunately, one has to limit the size of a squad in most activities in order to get a workable unit.

THE LARGER the school, the greater the problem of cutting. The decision to make high schools in the Acalanes District a maximum of 120 certainly gives more students an opportunity to take part than would be the case if schools were much larger, because, regardless of school size, the same number play on a team, whether it be five in basketball, nine in baseball or 11 in football.

Sideline Slants

Did You Think Sports Carefree?—Just Take Gander at These Items of Price!

By ERWIN MATTSON

ONE OF THE PROBLEMS in sports these days, as in everything else, is the matter of cost.

In high school sports the cost is split three ways.

Part of the expenditure is made from school funds, which provide protective equipment and basic items such as baseballs, basketballs and footballs.

The student body does its bit by buying such items as uniforms and extras that dress a team up.

In addition, the student body bears a part of the cost of insurance for players.

The individual has his own bit of expense to shoulder.

First he must have insurance, taking it out through the school or with some outside agency. This is a must and a prerequisite to participation, and runs in cost from $2 to $9.

Then, personal items must be purchased, such as shoes and gloves.

Track shoes run from $7 to $12, football shoes up to $20, baseball shoes from $6 to $10, baseball gloves cost from $7 to $25.

All in all, it is rather startling when one considers the total.

PROPER CARE of gear can make it last a long time.

A good glove really lasts for many years if given good care. Regular oiling and cleaning make gloves and shoes last five times as long as is the case when they are abused and not given care.

SPEAKING OF expenditures, I often have wondered what would happen if we took the same amount of money that is spent in time of war and put it to bettering our country in times of peace. It would be an interesting experiment.

Overcrowded schools, lack of roads, lack of community centers, the need for hospitals and many other needs could be a thing of the past.

FOR SOME REASON we can't afford it for peaceful purposes; then we go all-out in times like these to make the world safe for democracy.

It would be interesting to see us put a wartime budget to work toward peaceful pursuits.

But human nature will have to change a lot before we do.

Don Varsity Wins Against Antioch, Swett; Bees Lose

The Acalanes basketball five had a busy week as the Varsity racked up wins over John Swett of Crockett and Antioch while the Bees dropped a pair to the same opposition.

In the Crockett game at the John Swett court February 21 the Varsity smashed to a 97-47 win, which set a new high for the league in the way of scores and broke the record set earlier in the season when they registered a 93-43 win.

IT WAS THE Blue and White of the Dons all the way as they went ahead, 27-10, in the opening quarter and made it 51-23 at the half-way mark.

The second half found the reserves taking over for the most part and they couldn't miss for hitting as they rolled on.

Bob Borghesani with 27 and Art Siler with 21 topped the scoring list, while Ed Vallejo paced Crockett with 15.

IN THE BEE tilt the Don Babes were on the short end of a 46-40 count.

They jumped to an early lead only to have Crockett tie it up, 24-all, at the half.

THE DONS HELD a 22-31 third quarter advantage but fell behind in the fatal fourth period, to drop the game, 46-40.

Mike White and Eddie Mason led the Don scorers with 16 and 12, respectively, while Ray Castinetti, John Swett guard, headed his club with 14.

ON TUESDAY the Dons met up with Antioch at the Acalanes gym in a postponed affair and the Don Varsity proved to be master of the situation with a 61-50 count in their favor.

Antioch made it close throughout the first half, with the Dons leading 27-24 at the half.

Evidently Coach Lee Arth gave them the word at the half, as the Dons had things pretty much their own way in the third quarter and went ahead, 43-33, never to be headed.

ANTIOCH GAVE UP the ghost in the final minutes and concentrated on giving the ball to their ace guard, Billy Williams, in an effort to overtake the Dons' Borghesani in the scoring race for top county honors.

When it ended, Williams had 23 to Borghesani's 21. Antioch has one game to go and Williams needs 24 points to top Borzo, who is out in front by that much.

IN THE BEE game the Acalanes five lost a heartbreaker, 34-33, in an overtime affair that had the fans on their feet to the end.

The Dons took an early 10-7 lead and went out in front 24-15 at the half, only to have Antioch close the gap to 27-25 at the third quarter.

BOTH CLUBS HAD difficulty in finding the hoop in the fourth period, and it ended at 30-all.

In the overtime it was nip and tuck but a foul shot marked the difference, and it ended 34-33 in the visitors' favor.

The Bees met up with the Pitt Pirates in another postponed game on the Acalanes court yesterday afternoon but results were unavailable at press time.

Casaba Ends; Spring Sports Get Under Way

The Acalanes fives wound up the regular 1951-52 basketball season when the Varsity faced Antioch 61-50 in the Acalanes gym Tuesday afternoon and the Bees met Pittsburg yesterday afternoon, against Pittsburg's best, on the Dons' hard-wood.

Results of the Pitt game were not available at press time.

A mathematical chance remains for the varsity to end up in a tie with Albany, which rests in first place by virtue of a one-game lead over the Dons.

Pittsburg defeated Albany in their initial encounter and a repeat performance tonight would throw the Dons and Albany into a two-way tie for first.

THE WINNER of league play gets an invitation to the Tournament of Champions held in the Bay Area each year. It is not known what would happen in case of a tie.

There are several possibilities, including a playoff, which is doubtful as it wouldn't conform to Contra Costa policy.

A coin might be tossed to decide who would go.

A THIRD POSSIBILITY is that the Tournament might decide to ask both fives or might invite the team of its own choice.

Then, again, Albany might receive the bid on the basis of their having defeated Acalanes in their two meetings.

All of which makes for an interesting bit of conjecture, but none of which will come about if Albany wins tonight.

NEXT WEEK FINDS spring sports getting an early start, with baseball taking over on Wednesday, when the Dons are slated to travel to Livermore for the season's opener.

Bob Westlund, John Oleott and Rick Johnson are slated for mound duty, with Bob Borghesani due to work an inning or two if his arm is ready.

Pitchers have been working out for better than a month but poor weather has handicapped the throwers getting in top shape.

THE REST OF the lineup remains unsettled and will depend on workouts between now and game time.

The Dons boast a veteran squad and appear ready to field a top-flight nine.

COACHES Charles Eaton and Bob Lord have their endermen opening their season next Thursday when Las Lomas, Alhambra and John Swett invade the Acalanes track. Meet time is 3:30 p.m.

Coach Eaton's varsity appears to be another story and a definite threat for top county honors.

Eric Murray, Art Siler and Ray Williamson look to be tops in the weight events, while the high jump, broad jump, pole vault and distance events appear well fortified.

THE WEAKNESS seems to lie in the sprint events unless Coach Eaton uncovers a find in early season.

Coach Lord's Bees are pretty much an unknown quantity and
